Yacht La Mirage 171 (previously named Amels 171) is a stunning vessel built by Amels in 2007, with interiors by Laura Sessa, and refitted in 2017/18. This superyacht cruises at 13 knots, thanks to her 16V 2000 M70 engines, and is crewed by a captain and twelve others.

Up to twelve can be accommodated in six cabins. This includes the master suite with an adjoining office, walk-in wardrobe, and en-suite bath & shower. For entertainment, she comes with Wi-fi; comprehensive audio & visual systems; satellite TV in the cabins, main deck salon, and bridge deck salon; iPod docking stations; iPads in all cabins; and some board games. An impressive variety of gym equipment are also available for guests.

For watersports and recreation, she offers a 6.6m BSC tender with a 150hp engine, a 5.5m Nautica RIB 18 Wide body with a 150hp outboard engine, five Sea-Doo waverunners, two SeaBob Cayago VX2As, waterskis, wakeboards, tows, inflatable stand-up paddle boards, snorkelling gear, and a waterslide.
