CHALET TUFTRA FINDELBACH

ZERMATT, ZERMATT

Chalet Tuftra Findelbach is an exceptional Alpine residence perched in the prestigious district of Winkelmaten. Coveted access to the ski slopes combines robust dining scenes and high-end retail shopping in a neighborhood called the "Beverly Hills od Zermatt." Offering the ultimate portal into Swiss highlife living, Chalet Tuftra Findelbach is an all-season beauty, sure to please everyone from the gourmand to the mountaineer or skier.

Spectacular interiors present a unique Japandi gradient of Alpine luxury. A pared-down and serene ambiance is curated in harmony with Zen sensibilities. Roughhewn timber beams enhance soaring vaulted ceilings while oversized windows inundate the great room with majestic Matterhorn views. Ultra-plush modern furnishings convene around an open 360-degree Swiss fire cube, offering the ultimate in apres-ski repose. Svelte internal glass walls provide an ingenious space division between the living room and office space while retaining the vacation rental's breezy open concept living philosophy. A gorgeous dining space offers seating for twenty, serviced by an ultra streamlined gourmet kitchen. Chalet Tuftra Findelbach's intuitive floorplan is ideally suited for casual get-togethers or lavish cocktail soirees, with saturated post-modern art pieces imbuing a delectable cosmopolitan sophistication. Seven fantastic suites offer versatile lodging options, accommodating large groups in utmost comfort, discretion, and elegance, seventh room is a kids bunk-room located on the upper floor. An additional lounge space provides further accommodation if necessary. Chalet also features a private elevator and a TV room with DVD and PlayStation.

A veritable haven of relaxation and apres-ski bodily bliss, Chalet Tuftra Findelbach comes equipped with an outdoor Jacuzzi, steam room, sauna, massage room, and an Onsen. Adjacent to the wellness area on the lower ground floor is a gym with a wide range of fitness machines and weights. It also has a ski and boot room with heated boot racks at the chalet, supplanting endless adventures on the slopes.

ZERMATT

Zermatt, an idyllic mountain village in the Swiss Alps, established itself as one of the most renowned world-class resorts. Dominated by the Matterhorn, a looming peak that has achieved almost mythical status as the ultimate Swiss landmark makes the village of Zermatt all the more enchanting. As a winter resort, it boasts an enviable snow record, superb skiing (lasting through early summer), stunning luxury ski chalets, and nightlife to match. Come summer, the four-thousand-meter summits attract many alpinists. There are hiking, cycling, climbing, and high-Alpine tours with views of Europe's highest two mountains – Mont Blanc and Monta Rosa. This combination of breathtaking scenery, top-class hospitality, and one of the highest ski areas in the Alps make Zermatt a dream destination all year round. A robust cultural itinerary keeps guests occupied, with ample museums and tours awaiting apres-ski downtime.
