This spectacular luxury complex is smattered with exceptional private Villas and grandiose living pavilions. Beautiful rotunda and palapa thatched rooftops dot the Island's rich tropical foliage. A focal communal area dazzles with spectacularly high ceilings and bowed timber arches. Rich wood paneling exhibiting the world's finest woods and exotic grains frames all-embracing glass doors, utterly at one with the serene natural environs. Spectacular two-story areas dazzle with stature, architectural skylights, and crows nest-like mezzanine taking ample inspiration from an illustrious seafaring past. High-end furnishings dazzle with West Indies exoticism and colonial prestige between intimate ensuites, palatial dining halls, and communal lounging spaces. Necker Island's 23 elegant bedrooms are individually appointed, each flaunting a distinct gradient of tropical opulence, where high culture prestige and breezy Island living meet their apex, accommodating up to 48 adults and six children. Ten of the suites belong to the Great House, with additional sleeping quarters smattered across the sizeable Island for maximum discretion and comfort.
