VILLA LARISA

HOLLYWOOD HILLS, LOS ANGELES

Villa Larisa is a one-of-a-kind Mediterranean-styled estate nestled in the Hollywood Hills. Brimming with all the prestige and glamor of its coveted location, this home is fully attuned to the Tinseltown highlife, perched moments away from the retail heaven of Rodeo Drive, golfing at the Wilson and Harding Golf course, or coastline cruising off Santa Monica Pier. The property's hilltop vantage point delivers breathtaking panoramic views stretching from the Los Angeles skyline to the ocean.

A veritable behemoth of opulence, Larisa greets guests with a monumental two-story foyer that extends into the equally imposing living room defined by its striking views. This sprawling luxury complex is replete with artful details and flourishes, emphasizing limestone and French Oak accent. The outstanding interiors offer a delectable blend of Old European elegance with chic contemporary accents. Renaissance style friezing grace the majestic exposed beam accents while modern winged chairs and a neoclassical fireplace revel in aristocratic grandeur. Gargantuan arched doorways and windows curate the cavernous common spaces' outstanding sense of permeability. Unique hexagonal bee-hive ceiling ornamentation adds a modern edge to the formal dining room flanked by lovingly furbished antiques and an exceptional walk-in wine cellar. All nine sumptuous ensuites bedrooms accommodate guests in unmatched luxury comfort. Configured with six in the main house and three in two guest houses, guests are offered the utmost discretion.

Villa Larisa is lauded for its resort-style exteriors abounding in verdant lawns and lush gardens navigated by secluded footpaths and bridges over active water features. Guests may indulge in the breathtaking majesty of the urban views from the home's expansive balconies. A lagoon-style pool offers the ultimate respite from the afternoon heat.

LOS ANGELES

HOLLYWOOD HILLS

Los Angeles holds many distinctions. Its ethereal and otherworldly character earns it the beloved moniker, the City of Angels. It may be the birthplace of Hollywood, but it is much more than just red carpets and silver screen stars. Having a thriving art scene, LA is an absolute cultural mecca with more than 100 museums, like the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) with seminal artwork. The city has an exciting medley of restaurants and bars to choose from, and the Art Deco Griffith Observatory high up in the Hollywood Hills, with its Samuel Oschin Planetarium, Tesla Coil, and cameos in several iconic films, is one of LA's most distinctive landmarks. Electric with ethnic diversity and an uncanny Mediterranean climate, Los Angeles is a world unto itself.
