VILLA HERA

CALA DE VOLPE, SARDINIA

Villa Hera is a dazzling contemporary villa in beautiful Sardinia, an architectural work of art with modern, sleek lines and impeccable design. It is set in the heart of the Costa Smeralda coast in Sardinia, in one of the most exclusive areas of Porto Cervo, offering stunning panoramic views of Pevero Bay and Cala di Volpe.

Stepping inside, the beautiful color concept and sophisticated interior design amaze visitors. Huge windows let the natural light flood the interiors and create an airy sanctuary punctuated with stunning accents and works of art. The airiness of the interior is further underscored by light color-painted walls, marble floors, and elegant design furniture. This exclusive private property consists of two buildings: the larger main villa and the guest house, connected by an underground corridor tunnel. There are various lounging areas, a dining area, and a professional modern steel kitchen. The sleeping area has a palatial master bedroom with an elegant sea view, two bathrooms, and two spacious dressing rooms. There are three ensuite bedrooms in the main house and professional laundry, a cozy wine cellar with an aperitif bar. The guest house is designed with a large living room, three ensuite bedrooms with dressing rooms, a professional steel kitchen, a gym overlooking the sea, a SPA area with hairdressing services and a massage salon, and a sauna, including a yoga room, a cinema. Further 2 additional bedrooms can be used for staff.

The outdoor space of villa Hera is landscaped with relaxation and contemplation in mind, inspired by the mesmerizing panoramic views. A beautiful garden with various Mediterranean vegetation and flowers surrounds two wonderful two-level infinity pools. The outdoor sunbath terraces and furnished verandas for outdoor dining cater to a carefree and comfortable stay in the villa. There is a snow-white gazebo with 360-degree panoramic views, a romantic place to contemplate sunsets.

SARDINIA

CALA DE VOLPE

From its dreamy white sand coves, sheer cliffs, and mountainscapes dotted with roaming sheep, Sardinia has become one of Italy's foremost luxury destinations. Here, La Dolce Vita living is particularly potent, with a distinct regional culture adding a novel spin to the Italian tricolor. An untamed hinterland meets the emerald waters of the Tyrrhenian, with dramatic rock formations sculpting countless craggy coves and serene enclaves caressed by frothy seafoam. Scattered pieces of heaven are everywhere – from the jutting cliffs, majestic canyons, mysterious underground caves, endless emerald waters, and lush greenery. Drop anchor along the picturesque coastlines of Costa Smeralda or Golfo di Orosei, or set sail for the epic La Maddalena Islands. Regional eccentricities and a striking culinary and gastronomic tradition will attract Italophiles, while an unmatched coastal playground ensures guests extend their luxury getaways indefinitely. Sardinia's majestic coastlines and rugged beauty have inspired some of the world's most revered novelists and bohemians. Writer David Herbert (D.H.) Lawrence famously regarded the island as "something different" and intangible, like "freedom itself."
