AMANDERU ESTATE

STONBRIDGE, WHISTLER

Amanderu Estate is an astounding residence perched at Stonebridge's peak. Amanderu's striking sculptural design is daringly exquisite, just like its supernatural alpine surroundings. This masterful architectural feat commands vertiginous vistas comprising Whistler and the Blackcomb mountains. Amanderu Estate unravels into a Fibonacci sequence from its wooded clifftop surroundings, setting apart a truly singular luxury property.

Merging contemporary design, quality craftsmanship, and awe-inspiring nature, this home epitomizes the pinnacle of high-altitude luxury living. Minimal decor and simple shapes comprise the furnishings enhancing Amanderu Estate's immersive architecture and vistas. Gargantuan glass walls gracefully conform to the estate's mammoth curved dimensions dousing each corner of the estate in the hyperreal radiance of the Rockies. Grandiose dimensions meet featherweight grace across voluminous halls and double-story atriums that appear to defy gravity. Soaring steel beams delineate immersive swathes of polished Pacific Northwest timbers, while the contours of an industrial-chic staircase are enhanced with elegant floor-to-ceiling cabling. Native stone accents add a rustic opposition to the home's streamlined contours, grounding this Villa in the elements. Beautifully appointed throughout, Amanderu Estate presents five stunning bedrooms, each immaculately conceived with majestic vistas. The guesthouse has an additional one bedroom, delivering six bedrooms for maximum lodging versatility and comfort. Other top-notch amenities of this home include a media room, exercise rooms, a wine cellar, a mudroom, and massage and spa facilities.

This one-of-a-kind estate features a cantilevered swimming pool over the cliff, protruding over a boundless valley of cedar and pine trees. A series of ocular protrusions from the lush lawns reveals a hot tub grotto and a natural light channel illuminating the lavish wellness facilities on the lower level below. Exhilarating and humbling in equal measure, Amanderu Estate is a home that demands to be experienced to be believed. The estate's seven-acre grounds include a heliport rounding off one of the world's most remarkable mountain properties.
